reports, although they each claim that they could have swam a mile if necessary to reach land.

The yawl was one owned by L. C. Benedict of New York and named "In It." Three brokers who were in it and suddenly found themselves out of it, declare it is wrongly named, they also declare that they surely could have taken a cup for "In It" was rounding the stake in the lead of the five boats, when a gust of wind turned "In It" outside and the three men were pitched out of it. It was so rough that the other yawls could not lend a hand for fear of capsizing themselves. They were rescued by Henry Gatterson, launchman at the Riverside Yacht club, who saw the accident.

BAPTISMAL SERVICES.

On Sunday evening at St. Mark's Episcopal church, before one of the largest congregations it has ever seated, a special baptismal service was conducted by the Rev. Gallup, rector in charge. Eighteen residents of Tonopah were baptized, the beautiful Episcopal service being used and the ceremony a very impressive one. At the same service six of the younger boys of Tonopah were initiated into the vested choir, making a total of eighteen in the vested choir which the church now enjoys.

Following the church service a meeting was held in the body of the church at which a Young People's society was formed, with William Hinson selected as the president pro tem. The society starts with a promising membership and will doubtless be a factor in the community for social purposes and the advancement of better conditions generally.

MAN COMES NEAR PERISHING ON DESERT

A small leak in a canteen came near being responsible for the death of a man a few days ago on the desert between Amos and Awakening. The man, whose name could not be ascertained, started last Wednesday to walk from Amos across the Bloody Run desert to Awakening, a distance of fifteen miles. He took along only a small canteen filled with water. When about half way across the desert he found that the water had all leaked out through a hole so small as to be unnoticed. The sun was blazing hot and the man became half delirious and would possibly have perished had not J. B. Truitt happened along with his automobile. He picked up the man and took him into Awakening, where he was cared for and speedily recovered.

BATTLESHIP SHOT TO PIECES IN PRACTICE

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 6.—The American gunners yesterday proved their right to the title of the "best in the world" when the dreadnought Delaware completely destroyed every portion of the old battleship San Marcus, formerly the Texas, visible above the surface of Chesapeake bay at Tangiers Sound, where she was sunk last spring by the guns of the battleship New Hampshire. The destruction of the San Marcus occurred before 7 o'clock yesterday. The battery of 10 12-inch guns in the Delaware were trained on the sunken ship at a range of from 10,000 to 16,000 yards.

RHYOLITE STANDS IN THE LIMELIGHT

Rhyolite has become an envious and jealous community. Ever since the cantaloupes and watermelons grown on the banks of the Amargosa have failed to effect distinction abroad for this locality, a desire to do something to cause fame, and incidentally bring in the money has obsessed this dear little town.

Glancing over the universe to discover a hint of what Rhyolite might do to become noted, Reno came within the range of that glance. Instantly it was determined to build up the hilarious and profitable divorce colony. But this must be a superior colony—nothing plebeian would be tolerated. The ordinary personages who indulge in divorce, such as those from the Great White Way of New York, or bankers and iron mongers from the cow counties of Pennsylvania and New York, are not sufficiently distinguished to appease the aspirations of Rhyolite.

Therefore a real live scion of German nobility was induced to perfect a residence in our midst preparatory to a judicial severance of marital bonds. He came and was welcomed hilariously and jovially, both he and the dastard.

The legal residence having been acquired Counsellor Chandler has filed an application in the district court for the granting of a decree of divorce to Baron von Frege-Wiltz from Mabel Frege-Wiltz. The application being predicted upon alleged cruelty and inhuman treatment, which made life intolerable. This will take its due course and be subject to the scrutiny of the court.

Now Rhyolite is threatened with world-wide distinction as a divorce retreat par excellence, patronized by the nobility and the severely select. Counsellor Chandler is liable to expand, wax fat and become noted in "causes celebres." Thus far happiness prevails.—Rhyolite Herald.

WARDEN MAXWELL STOPPED GAMBLING

That gambling is allowed within the walls of the Nevada state prison is the story that is now going the rounds of the outside press. That this is false is known to all who know anything whatever of prison regulations. It used to be the caper for the convicts to gamble in the prison, but during the reign of Warden Maxwell a stop was put to the custom and since that time gambling of no kind has been allowed. The evening paper in a purported interview with Warden Baker over the matter states that prior to Baker's taking charge of the prison, gambling was allowed on Sunday afternoons. If Mr. Baker made the statement he was surely mistaken as the News has a copy of an order made by Warden Maxwell which shows that gambling was stopped at the prison long before Mr. Baker took charge. Gambling was stopped at the prison by Warden Maxwell and the credit for the act belongs wholly to him and not to Warden Baker.—Carson City News.

APPELL'S South African WATER BAG

Keeps water cool 48 hours or longer, in sun or shade; great boon to prospectors, surveyors, sportsmen, fishermen, teamsters, anyone exposed to dry or warm weather. Used by U. S. Gov't. Strong, light, easy to carry. Guaranteed.

This Letter Typifies the Attitude of All Users

Gentlemen: I have recently 1 bag occasion to drink out of one of your South African Water Bags. Water from the bag certainly tasted good in the desert. We used one of your 2 1/2 gallon bags and the water remained cool all day, even through the temperature near 100° in the shade, and in the morning I found the water sparkling and as cool as the water. It certainly is a boon to those living in the arid regions.

Very Respectfully,
E. H. Smith, Indiana.
